

A diverse and free media is essential to a healthy democracy. I urge the FCC to uphold the safeguards already in place to protect the nation's airwaves and print media from corporate consolidation.